Date	Description	Amount (s)	Balance (s)
10 Jun	ATM withdrawal: London Sector	-259,200	145,185,290
	Filed for the auditors: the withdrawal at London Sector carries the branch's own reference, which the machine is not able to print. The reference was added by hand, and the machine's log agrees with the hand. Ref. CIBT-3012-E5C4-9
13 Jun	Transfer to joint account	-3,508,685	141,676,605
	"Joint accounts are the only ones where the statement is read twice before anyone looks at the balance," the Teller says. "Once by each of you, and then by each of you to see that the other has." Ref. CIBT-3012-2606-4
14 Jun	Slippage fee (London Sector, 3 transfers)	-1,800	141,674,805
	You send 3 crossings in the same order every month: the small one first, then the large, then the one you have said you will cancel. The fee has never changed with the order, though the officers have checked it. Ref. CIBT-3012-3F27-4
26 Jun	Payroll credit: Belt Ore Consolidated	+5,847,808	147,522,613
	The employer's office sent this month's wage 28 days late, explaining that the notice had been read aloud at the wrong table. The sum fell exactly on a half-second, and under the rounding rule such a sum goes to the payee, so the half becomes a whole second, which is yours and appears on the credit line. Ref. CIBT-3012-9FCC-9
28 Jun	Deposit: Hall E	+27,822,770	175,345,383
	The entry for the 28th was posted to the holder's old number after a change of account. The entry was amended on the same page, so that both could be read, and the sum moved with it, so the old number now shows nothing at all. Ref. CIBT-3012-4ED8-3
30 Jun	Interest at 4.90% APY	+593,898	175,939,281
	The balance was left to accrue through 31 days of travel, which the depositor described on the form as a holiday and the Bank describes as a period of unusually steady income. Ref. CIBT-3012-1B44-7

Balances accrue every second of every day by the Standard clock and are shown in Standard Galactic Seconds. Transfers between branches whose clocks disagree carry the slippage fee shown in the Daily Slippage Report for the day of transfer. Deposits are insured by the Temporal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to 10,000 years per depositor, per epoch.
